

ual:

Teaching, Learning and Wellbeing

#LTC19

Learning and Teaching Conference 2019

Thurs 21 March

Student Wellbeing at UAL

Mark Crawley, Dean of Students, UAL

March 2019

Context

- Increasing anxiety about well-being in society, especially younger people
- Increasing anxiety about student well-being

Context

- Increased take-up of student support
- Expansion of student support services
- Creative education
- Demographic profile

Question 1

What is the University's Duty of Care to students?

- Teaching, learning and research are our core activities
- We are not a therapeutic community
- Our students are adults with agency
- Our students have confidentiality / data protection rights

Resilience

“The willingness to adapt and remain motivated, overcome obstacles, and deal with ambiguity, uncertainty, and rejection”

UAL Creative Attributes Framework

Question 2

How can we / do we develop resilience among our students?

Question 3

How can we develop our own resilience?